

National Health Care Transition Resource Center

FOR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS WITH INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Join The Youth Development Initiative (YDI)

Where: Zoom

When: Applications are due November 15, 2022; YDI starts in January 2023

of members on the YDI: Recruiting 8 to 10 disabled youths

What you will do:

- Learn and receive mentoring from other youth
- Learn skills such as independent living, decision-making, health care advocacy
- Learn health care transition training to disabled youths between the ages of 12-17

Who to contact: Rachel Shandler, Youth Engagement and Empowerment Coordinator for more information or if you have any questions

Email: rshandler@spanadvocacy.org

Phone Number: 215-550-1340

Perks of joining:

- Free training
- Learn how to:
 - o Manage your own health care
 - o Be an advocate and work as a team
- Opportunity to gain experience in the field of health care and advocacy/policy

Our goal: Have a resource center that is youth-driven is guided disabled people. This resource center will guide other disabled individuals on how to manage their health care.